Registered Participants may pay a program fee for services rendered by the Corporation or its Members, but are not Members of the Corporation. The Corporation will maintain a Registration Policy that will determine the requirements of registration in order for an athlete, coach or official to be deemed to be a Registered Participant; and
 - m) Special Resolution – a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two thirds of the votes cast on that resolution; and

3. The business and affairs of the Corporation will be carried on without the purpose of gain for its Members and any profits or other accretions to the Corporation will be used in promoting its purposes.
4. Except as provided in the Act, the Board will have the authority to interpret any provision of these Bylaws that is contradictory, ambiguous, or unclear, provided such interpretation is consistent with the purposes of the Corporation as set out in the Articles.
5. These Bylaws have been drafted in English and the official French text is a translation. In the case of conflicting interpretations, the English version will prevail.

MEMBERSHIP

6. The Corporation has two classes of Members:
 - a) Provincial / Territorial Association Members are the 13 Provincial and Territorial Wrestling Associations within Canada, which are in good standing with and are formally recognized by their respective Province or Territory sport governing body as the governing body for the sport of wrestling within that jurisdiction; and
 - b) Stakeholder Group Members are the following four stakeholder groups within the Corporation: Athletes, Officials, U SPORTS Coaches and Club Coaches.
7. Each Member agrees to abide by the Corporation's Articles, Bylaws, policies, procedures, rules and regulations. Failure to do so may result in discipline being imposed against the Member.
8. Each Member has one vote and will select its delegate to represent that Member at meetings of Members.
9. Member dues and Registered Participant fees will be determined from time to time by the Members.
10. Membership in the Corporation is terminated when:
 - a) The Member no longer meets the definition of Member set out in Section 6.
 - b) The Member resigns from the Corporation by giving written notice to the President, in which case the resignation becomes effective on the date specified in the notice.
 - c) The Member ceases to be in good standing by virtue of i) failing to pay membership dues, fees or other monies owing to the Corporation by the prescribed deadline dates, or ii) having had disciplinary sanctions imposed in accordance with Section 7.
 - d) The Corporation is liquidated or dissolved under the Act.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

11. Meetings of Members will include Annual Meetings and Special Meetings.

12. The Corporation will hold meetings of Members at such date, time and place as determined by the Board. The Annual Meeting will be held within 15 months of the last Annual Meeting but not later than six months after the end of the Corporation's preceding financial year.
13. A Special Meeting of the Members may be called at any time by the President or upon the written requisition of Members holding five percent of the total Members' votes. The agenda of Special Meetings will be limited to the subject matter for which the meeting was duly called.
14. A meeting of Members may be held by means of telephone, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if the Corporation makes available such a communication facility.
15. Any Member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members may participate in the meeting by means of telephone, or an electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if the Corporation makes available such a communication facility. A person so participating in a meeting is deemed to be present at the meeting.
16. Notice will include the time and place of a meeting, the proposed agenda, reasonable information to permit Members to make informed decisions, and will be given to each Member by the following means:
 - a) By mail, courier or personal delivery to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting, at least 30 days before the day on which the meeting is to be held; or
 - b) By telephone, electronic or other communication facility to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting, at least 21 days before the day on which the meeting is to be held.
17. A Special Resolution of the Members is required to make any change to the manner of giving notice to Members described in Section 16.
18. Persons entitled to be present at a meeting of Members are the delegates identified by the Member to exercise the Member's vote (one individual), other representatives of the Member that the Member consents to being present (no more than two), the Directors, the Auditor and such other persons who are entitled or required under any provision of the Act to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only at the invitation of the Chair of the meeting or by Ordinary Resolution of the Members at the Meeting.
19. Any meetings of Members may be adjourned to any time and place as determined by the Board and such business may be transacted at such adjourned meeting as might have been transacted at the original meeting from which such adjournment took place. No notice will be required for any adjourned meeting.

20. Quorum for a Meeting of Members will be a majority of Members. If quorum is met at the start of the meeting, but thereafter Members depart the meeting such that quorum is lost, the meeting is nonetheless a valid meeting and may continue.
21. A member of the Management Team shall Chair the Meeting of Members in absence of President.
22. There will be no proxy voting. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Articles or these Bylaws, an Ordinary Resolution will decide each issue.

GOVERNANCE

23. The Board will consist of 10 to 12 Directors, as follows:
 - a) A President, elected by the Members at the Annual Meeting to serve a term of two years;
 - b) Six Directors elected by Class 'A' Members at the Annual Meeting to serve terms of two years, provided that at least one Director will be elected from each of the following four regions: (i) BC and YT, (ii) AB, and NT, (iii) SK, MB and NU, and (iv) QC, NB, NS, NL and PE, and two Directors will be elected from region (v) which is ON.
 - c) Four Directors elected by Class 'B' Members at the Annual Meeting to serve terms of two years, provided that one Director will be elected from each of the four stakeholder groups as described in Section 6(b); and
 - d) One Independent Director who is appointed by the Board following the Annual Meeting to serve as a Director until the next Annual Meeting.
24. Gender equity at the WCL Board of Directors is important and WCL will strive to meet a goal of 60/40 gender parity by 2024.
25. Effective 2021 elections for the WCL Board of Directors, no director of WCL will simultaneously hold a position of director of another organization which is a member of WCL. Any individual holding a position of director of another organization which is a member of WCL will be required to step down from the position within one month of being elected as a director of WCL.
26. Any person, who is 18 years of age or older, who has the power under law to contract, who is resident of Canada, who has not been declared incapable by a court in Canada or in another country, who does not have the status of bankrupt, and who satisfies the requirements of the Income Tax Act in relation to the eligibility to serve as a director of a registered charity may be nominated for election or appointment as a Director.
27. Any nomination of an individual for election as a Director must be supported by at least two Members, one of which must be a Provincial and Territorial Wrestling Association with which the nominee is affiliated; and must include the written consent of the nominee.

28. Nominations will be submitted to the Registered Office of the Corporation 30 days prior to the Annual Meeting, will be circulated to the Members 21 days prior to the Annual Meeting, and elections will take place at the Annual Meeting provided that, consistent with the Act, nominations may also be made at the Annual Meeting.
29. The President may not serve more than three consecutive terms as President. Directors may not serve more than three consecutive terms as Directors. Terms served as a Director are not included in the calculation of term limits for a Director who is elected to be President. Terms will be staggered such that three Class 'A' Directors and two Class 'B' Directors will be elected in odd years, and the remaining Class 'A' and the remaining Class 'B' Directors will be elected in even years.
30. A Director may resign from the Board at any time by presenting his or her notice of resignation to the Board. This resignation will become effective the date on which the request is accepted by the Board.
31. The office of any Director will be vacated automatically if the Director:
 - a) Fails to meet the qualifications for a Director as stated in Section 26;
 - b) Is convicted of any criminal offense related to the position;
 - c) Fails to meet the eligibility requirements imposed by the Income Tax Act for directors of registered charities; or
 - d) Upon the Director's death.
32. Consistent with the Act, a Director may be removed by Ordinary Resolution of the Members at a meeting of Members, provided the Director has been given notice of and the opportunity to be heard at such a meeting. If the Director is removed and holds a position as an Officer, the Director will automatically and simultaneously be removed from the position as an Officer.
33. Where the position of a Director becomes vacant for whatever reason, the Board may appoint a qualified individual from the same member class and same region, where applicable, to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the vacant position's term.
34. The President or a majority of Directors may call a meeting of the Board. The Board will meet a minimum of four times per year, and the minutes of its meetings will be distributed in a timely manner to the Members.
35. Notice of meetings of the Board will be given to all Directors at least seven days prior to the scheduled meeting. No notice of a meeting of the Board is required if all Directors waive notice, or if those Directors who are absent consent to the meeting being held in their absence.
36. At any meeting of the Board, quorum will be a majority of Directors holding office.

37. The President may vote at meetings of the Board.
38. A member of the Management Team shall Chair the Meeting of the Board in absence of President.
39. The immediate Past President may participate in meetings of the Board, but is not a Director and has no vote.
40. A meeting of the Board may be held by means of telephone, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if the Corporation makes available such a communication facility.
41. Except as otherwise provided in the Act or these Bylaws, the Board has the powers of the Corporation and may delegate any of its powers, duties and functions. More specifically, the Board will:
 - a) Lead the development of the vision, mission, values and strategic direction of the Corporation, for ratification by the Members;
 - b) Approve policies and procedures to deliver the programs and services of the Corporation;
 - c) Provide continuity for the Corporation by ensuring its financial health;
 - d) Engage under employment contract an Executive Director to manage and oversee the operations of the Corporation;

53. The fiscal year of the Corporation will be April 1 to March 31, or such other period as the Board may from time to time determine.
54. The banking business of the Corporation will be conducted at such financial institution as the Board may designate.
55. The Corporation will send to the Members a copy of the annual financial statements at least 21 days before the Annual Meeting.
56. The necessary books and records of the Corporation required by these Bylaws or by applicable law will be necessarily and properly kept. Minutes from meetings of the Board and records of the Corporation will be available to the Board, each of whom will receive a copy of such minutes. All other books and records will be available for viewing at the Registered Office of the Corporation in accordance with the Act.
57. The Executive Director and any Officer will have authority to sign for and on behalf of the Corporation all instruments and contracts. The Board may establish different signing authorities for cheques and other banking documents as it deems appropriate. From time to time the Board may, by resolution, appoint a Director or Officer to sign a specific instrument or contract on behalf of the Corporation. Any instruments or contracts so signed will be binding upon the Corporation without any further authorization or formality.
58. The Corporation may acquire, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of securities, lands, buildings, or other property, or any right or interest therein, for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.
59. The Corporation may invest and may borrow funds upon such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.
60. All Directors, Officers who are not employed by the Corporation, and members of Committees will serve as such without remuneration and will not directly or indirectly receive any profit from their positions as such; provided that Directors, Officers or members of Committees may be paid reasonable expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties.

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

61. Except for the items set out in Section 62, these Bylaws may be amended or repealed by Ordinary Resolution of the Directors at a meeting of the Board. The Directors will submit the Bylaw amendment or repeal to the Members at the next meeting of Members, and the Members may, by Ordinary Resolution, confirm, reject or amend the Bylaw, amendment or repeal. The Bylaw, amendment or repeal is effective from the date of the resolution of the Directors. If the Bylaw amendment is confirmed, or confirmed as amended, by the Members it remains effective in the form in which it was confirmed. The Bylaw amendments or appeal ceases to have effect if it is not submitted to the Members as described, or if it is rejected by the Members.
