- Out of province athletes and coaches must show proof of PTSO membership and a photo identification at check-in or when requested.
- BC and Alberta participants must register using 2MEV.
- Participants without access to 2MEV will have coaches download the Out of Province Registration Form, fill out this form, and email it to execdirector@bcwrestling.com: Out of Province Registration Form
- All registrations must be placed before the deadline (see information below for more information and event registration link).
- There will be no day of event adds.

OPEN EVENT - ALL WELCOME

Please note that the War on the Floor Novice (December 10, 2022) and Elite (December 11, 2022) are open events - but all athletes and teams are welcome and encouraged to attend. Although athletes may not represent schools, athletes may participate as 'club' athletes or register as unaffiliated.

Novice and Elite competition rules will be conducted according to the most recent edition of the WCL Rulebook, with modifications to weigh-in, singlet, draw format, and any other rules determined by BCWA and the HOC as appropriate for the event.

COACHES REGISTRATION

All coaches must register at no cost to be accredited for the event. Only accredited coaches may enter the field of play. Each team may register up to three coaches. Additional media and support staff are not permitted on the field of play. Teams may utilize event accredited participants, athletes or coaches, to be the team's media person; however, no media accreditation will be provided to teams.

SFU WAR ON THE FLOOR NOVICE

NOVICE DEFINITION

Any athlete that has not placed top 6 at a provincial/territorial championship or placed top 4 in any tournament in their age category. Coaches, please use discretion when entering athletes into the Novice categories. Failure to comply with this rule may result in your athlete being ejected from both the Novice and Elite tournaments, with no refunds.

AGE & WEIGHT CATEGORIES

Weigh-in will be managed by coaches through the honor system. Participants exact weight will be entered in the 2mev system during registration. The Host Organization Committee may conduct random weight checks at its sole discretion. Athletes more than 2 kg over the registered weight class will be ejected from both the Novice and Elite tournaments, with no refunds.
